PRESS RELEASE

POSH PASSION IN THE UK'S BEST HOLIDAY DESTINATION

Who said the glamour's gone from English romance? Surprise your lover and put a spark of opulence into your love life when you stay in this luxury retreat nestled in England's last great wilderness.

Dartmoor National Park was voted the 'Best British Holiday Destination' by the BBC in 2005, so where better to stir up an appetite for love and the great outdoors than this spellbinding expanse of velvet moorland, rugged tors and enchanting river valleys? And Byleat on Dartmoor is the most stylish and luxurious hideaway for you and your partner to indulge in private luxuries in this beautiful location. This immaculate 1920's property, restored in elegant period style and stuffed with rare and beautiful antiques, offers exquisite bedrooms and 'Classic Chic' qualities with all the trimmings

During a stay guaranteed to light the fire of any romance, indulge in candle-lit dinners under chandeliers in one of the finest 17th Century dining rooms in Devon, and sip classic Dry Martinis on your private cocktail terrace with a view over Dartmoor. Dinner at Byleat is a veritable feast of the finest West Country produce, served in the magnificent and intimate dining room. Sumptuous and succulent dishes include the likes of Tavy Valley Beef, freshly landed fish from Plymouth, and a smorgasbord of local ingredients from Tavistock – awarded the title of Best Market Town in Britain in 2004.

If you want to set your sights beyond the moors, to the western peninsula and the Atlantic, hold hands up high and take flight in a hot-air balloon. Your feet will barely touch the ground as you return to indulge in the lavish treasures back at Byleat, or choose to be whisked away in a limousine and swap the scenery of Dartmoor by day for a Hollywood experience of the city by night. Climb into your chauffer-driven carriage, pour the champagne and cruise the city lights and sights of Plymouth. Take in a show or a casino, and experience some of the West Country's finest dining at Tanners restaurant – where the food and heritage will rival that back at the beautiful Byleat on Dartmoor.

It's a common misconception that there is little to do in Devon once the summer months end, but the secret of 'West Country chic' is that it's even better in the winter months. Whether you want to don your walking boots and discover the wild landscapes, toast your toes by a roasting log fire, or get out the glad-rags and go for the glitz; the cooler months are by far the most romantic for a weekend of posh passion.
