2. Design-led weekend stays

Specialising in design-led properties, the rental firm Unique Homestays is offering two-night UK weekend breaks for the first time. Available until the end of May (but excluding bank holiday weekends), its Lazy Sunday offering lets you check out at 6pm on Sundays. One option with good availability is Figgy Court, a 700-year-old grain barn near Billingshurst in West Sussex. Following a natty modern makeover, it now has a riverside hot tub as well as oak beams and topiary. Two nights' self-catering for two costs £995 (uniquehomestays.com).
