Here's The Independent's top picks for your next rural staycation

Hinterland Cabin, Snowdonia, Wales

Marvel at mountain views from the luxury cabin's hot tub
(Hinterland Cabin/Unique Homestays)

Best for: Romantic retreats

A short drive from Anglesey, Hinterland Cabin screams (or, rather, croons) idyllic romance for couples who want to enjoy a retreat for two to Snowdonia. The luxury retreat in Conwy, a medieval market town, is set in enchanting woodlands overlooking the valley and traditional cliffsides below. Inside, fresh flowers and fluffy bathrobes await your arrival at the North Wales staycation spot. Chic interior furnishings include oak beams, gold-accent decor and a spacious walk-in shower. Welcome hampers come with authentic Welsh produce, such as Snowdonia cheese and local cider.

Outside, revel in the cabin's construction from the old slate and railway sleepers of the Conwy Valley line. Couples can enjoy a sauna, yoga deck and hot tub or take a walk around the nearby fishing lake, all from the comfort of the cosy self-catered cabin.
