

20 of the best treehouse stays in the UK

From canopy cabins to family-friendly hideouts, here's our pick of the best treehouse hotels for a memorable escape in the forest

7. Verte, Devon

UNIQUE HOMESTAYS/DAVID CURRAN

A prow-like RIBA award-winning house, wedged into a wooded slope on the oak-lined Chevithorne Barton estate, Verte is one for those who like to enjoy the high life — in all senses. This towering larch-clad lair dispenses with whimsy in place of elegant, contemporary design and luxury fittings. A circular fireplace takes centre-stage if you want to boost the building's geothermal heating, and there's a Sonos sound system. Wood is the focus, though; as well as bosky views and that larch cladding, the house's dining table and spalted stairs are both made from a storm-felled beech tree.

Price Four nights for ten people from £3,595
