Property Specific Terms and Conditions

When taking children to Viola, there are hazards that parents need to be made aware of. With due care and supervision, I am sure there will be no concerns, however the owners of Viola have requested that these hazards are acknowledged by the booking guest, who will also make the rest of their party aware.

The hazards are as follows:

- The lake in the garden is unfenced and therefore a drowning hazard. Whilst a lifebelt is available, adults should encourage children to stay away from this area for their own safety. The use of the row boat is only with an adult present
- Similarly, an adult must supervise the children in the pool and hot tub area. The reason for this is that there are stairs into the pool with hard edges and diving into the pool isn't acceptable as this could cause injury
- There are a number of stairs throughout the property and gardens, and the main staircase in the house is too wide to accommodate a stairgate
- The gym equipment must only be used by persons suited to use them, and therefore children are not permitted in this area
- Open fires and wood burners are found throughout the property and there are no fire guards in situ
- The AGA in the kitchen is constantly heated and therefore caution should be heeded when there are children in this area. Also in the kitchen, none of the cupboards have locks
- Two bedrooms have Juliette balconies and therefore it's advised that the bedroom doors for these rooms remain closed and the windows locked when the room is not in use
- Whilst the simulators are not technically a hazard, it should be noted that these are only to be used with adult supervision

2.1 These are the terms and conditions on which your Booking is made and your Holiday will be provided to you.

2.2 When you submit a booking form to us, we and the Owner are under no obligation to accept that booking.

2.3 We will provide you with written confirmation once we have, acting as agents for the Owner, accepted your Booking and upon acceptance, these terms and conditions become binding on us, you, and the Owner. To be clear: Booking is a contract between you and the Owner – we act only as the Owner's agent.

2.4 Once we have confirmed your Booking you will only be able to cancel in accordance with clause 7 below. However, if you contact us, we may be able to extend your Holiday or change the identity of or the number of persons in your party, but this is subject to availability and the Owner's agreement. Accordingly, we cannot guarantee that this will always be possible.

2.5 You are responsible for ensuring the details you provide on the booking form you submit to us are correct and whilst we will try to assist you, we cannot be liable for mistakes in information that you have given to us.

2.6 Every Booking has a reference number. Please quote this number in all correspondence with us relating to the Booking.

2.7 If you make a telephone booking, we will provide you with confirmation of the Booking over the phone and in writing after the call.

2.8 You agree that you will provide a Party List prior to arrival.

2.9 You agree to arrive at or after the Check-in time (usually 4pm but please check the property details) for the Booking (unless you notify us otherwise and we agree the same in advance).

2.10 The Property will not be available at any time outside of the Holiday and we may retain the Cautionary Deposit or otherwise charge you a reasonable sum for any costs incurred by us or the Owner if you have not left the Property at the Check-out time.

2.11 You confirm that the person making the Booking is over the age of 18.

2.12 You appreciate that, while we keep our illustrations, photographs and other imagery as up to date as possible, they are only illustrative and are subject to change.

3. OWNER'S OBLIGATIONS

3.1 Once your Booking has been confirmed, the Owner agrees to provide the Property to you for your Holiday, subject to these Terms and Conditions.

3.2 The Owner agrees to meet the standards required by us and you should inform the Owner if you have any concerns.

4. YOUR HOLIDAY AND WHAT IS PERMITTED

4.1 General

4.1.1 You agree to take proper care of the Property and its contents during your Holiday, including leaving the property in a clean and tidy state (please see FAQs) on departure, and we may deduct costs from your Cautionary Deposit if you fail to do so.

4.1.2 You will be notified of the maximum number of people who are permitted in the Property and you may not exceed that number. No-one other than the individuals listed in the Party List may stay in or (without the Owner's permission) visit the Property. A change of guests during the stay is subject to the Owner's permission.

4.1.3 If you chose the 'Alternative Group Option' you will be allocated an appropriate number of bedrooms. If you use any extra bedrooms the cost of the additional use will be deducted from your Cautionary Deposit and then, if there is a shortfall, your credit or debit card.

4.1.4 The Owner only permits the Property to be used for domestic and private use. If you do wish to use the Property for a commercial purpose, please contact us before booking.

4.2 Property Specific Terms

4.2.1 The Property may have Property Specific Terms which will be provided to you prior to Booking. You must abide by these during your Holiday.

5. PRICE AND PAYMENT

- 5.1 The price of your Holiday including any Cautionary Deposit and any extras (e.g. pet fees) will be notified to you prior to your request to book being confirmed.
- 5.2 We will confirm the dates for payment and the price of your Holiday at the time of Booking and you must ensure that you make the payments on time.
- 5.3 Payment may be made by debit card, credit card, or bank transfer.
- 5.4 Bank transfers must be in cleared funds by the deadlines for payment and in the currency shown in the Booking. Any bank or transfer charges shall be borne by you.
- 5.5 If you fail to pay any sums (including the Cautionary Deposit) by the due date we may either charge your debit or credit card for the amount owing plus an administration charge of £30 or we may cancel your Holiday and use any monies paid to cover the costs incurred by you breaching these terms and conditions.
- 5.6 You will not be permitted to have access to the Property if there is any sum (whether Cautionary Deposit or otherwise) outstanding at the Check-in time and clause 5.5 above will apply.

Otherwise, if any excessive cleaning, loss or damage is discovered then you will be informed of the amount to be deducted from the Cautionary Deposit.
- 6.4 If any proportion of the Cautionary Deposit is retained, or a further charge is made under this clause 6 and you dispute the same, we will provide you with the Owner's contact details and you will be required to resolve the issue directly with them.

- 7.1 Any cancellation must be in writing and will only be effective once we send written confirmation of the cancellation to you. Please see clause 8 for your entitlement to refunds and clause 2.4 relating to changes.
- 7.2 When we confirm your cancellation in writing we will provide you with details of what (if anything) is owing to you and any deductions we have made.
- 7.3 We strongly recommend that you take out travel insurance at the time of making the Booking with cancellation cover. Whilst we allow you to cancel your Holiday, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to refund any part of the payments you have already made.
- 7.4 If you are unable to travel to the Property for any reason, or do not arrive on the day of Check-in without notifying us, this will be treated as a cancellation under this clause 7.

9. THE OWNER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

9.1 The Owner may have to cancel a Booking prior to the Check-in time due to an event outside their control (such as fire, flood, failure of utilities or legislation) or if the Property will be unavailable as a result of a sale and we will contact you as soon as possible to let you know if this happens. We will try and arrange alternative accommodation in a property in our portfolio of similar facilities and price and, if this is not possible, you will be entitled to a full refund. This does not apply where you cancel because you are unable to travel or stay at the property as a result of the COVID – 19 pandemic or other legal requirement affecting you; only where the Owner cancels because they are not permitted to have guests at the Property.

9.2 Clause 9.1 states your sole and exclusive rights and remedies, and the Owner's and our entire obligations and liability, if cancellation occurs under clause 9.1.

10. LIABILITY

10.1 Neither we nor the Owner's liability is limited for:

- (a) death or personal injury caused by the negligence of either of us;
- (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- (c) breach of the terms implied by the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

10.2 If we or the Owner fail to comply with these terms and conditions, we and the Owner will each respectively be responsible for any loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our or the Owner's breach of the terms or negligence, but neither of us are responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if they were an obvious consequence of our or the Owners' breach or if they were contemplated by you and us when we entered into this Booking.

10.3 Subject to clause 10.1, we and the Owner are not responsible for any transport and/or alternative accommodation costs or for loss or damage to any of your items, belongings, or vehicles.

10.4 To be clear, we shall not be liable for any loss or damage you suffer due to the breach of these terms by, or the negligence of, the Owner and the Owner shall not be liable to you if we breach these terms or are negligent.
