#CottageWeek 2020: Wishbone Cottage, Malvern Hills

We are at Wishbone Cottage in the Malvern Hills. With stunning views, this home is quite the Tardis. The alfresco lighting, fire pit and seating area make the outdoor space just as cosy as the plush inside. The soft textures perfectly juxtapose the exposed beams and stone walls. This is a dream bolthole, surely? Wishbone Cottage is available through Unique Homestays.

#CottageWeek 2019: Little Eden, Scottish Highlands

This cottage takes us north, across the border, into Scotland. This is the magical Little Eden cottage, originally a grain mill, on the West Highland Way near the small village of Ross. Within an hour's drive of Glasgow, the cottage sits on a secluded inlet on Loch Lomond, with breathtaking views to prove it. The wildflower garden is flooded with seasonal bluebells under the shadow of Japanese Maples. The interiors are rustic but modern. The cottage is available to hire from Unique Home Stays.
