

TRAVEL

Taking Off

---

Rose Costello

---

Sunday October 18 2020, 12.01am,
The Sunday Times

---

---

Share

Save

MARK WATTS

As seen on screen

Fancy spending a few nights with a TV star? The Lost Cottage in Glenbeigh wowed viewers when it was featured on Room to Improve in recent years. The old stone cottage and its sympathetic add-on impressed Dermot Bannon, but viewers swooned at the views from the tall picture windows over Caragh lake and across to the mountains. This modern, two-bedroom retreat comes with plenty of little extras, such as a welcome hamper of local produce, a tablet for Netflix, Fugoo XL portable Bluetooth speaker, iPad, wi-fi, a gas barbecue, linen, towels and logs for the fire. Some dates are available this month, when a three-night stay cost from €1,583.

uniquehomestays.com