BY CHARLIE PORTER

28 NOVEMBER 2020

Dreaming of a rural getaway? Tat London's Charlie Porter rounds up the best UK holiday rentals to book once lockdown ends.

Unique Homestays

Charity

Charity, Herefordshire

The properties on Unique Homestays come with all the bells and whistles. This place, for example, has views of the Brecon Beacons – while being perfectly secluded, thoughtfully decorated, and boasting its own cinema room and pool table.

Up to 12 guests, from £2,450 per week.

Cadence

Cadence, West Sussex

The design of this Sussex retreat is inspired by the '70s sci-fi movie Stalker, and it feels like the sort of place that an elegant Bond villain would live.

Up to 10 guests, from £4,995 per week.
