

The most stylish UK vacation homes you can rent for the summer

From Cornwall to The Cotswolds – these are the homes where interior design lovers are staying this summer

As restrictions continue to lift on both sides of the Atlantic, our thoughts are inevitably turning towards summer and the long-awaited sun-drenched days we will spend on vacation.

While we choose a home for its location, the interiors are equally as important. So, to ensure you spend your hazy summer days in a beautiful vacation home, we've rounded up a selection of Livingetc-approved properties that are celebrated for their wholly aesthetic home decor and quintessentially British charm.

1. ECLECTIC COUNTRY HOME IN PETWORTH, WEST SUSSEX

For an ultra-stylish and unusually sci-fi-inspired summer sanctuary, look no further than this strikingly playful modern country home near the South Downs National Park in West Sussex. This color-kissed estate was previously home to the esteemed architect Adam Richards who designed a juxtaposition between the Ancient Roman-esque exteriors and vibrant contemporary interiors.

This self-catering home, which is now available to rent through uniquehomestays.com, includes an art-filled living room and breezy bedrooms.

The home also won the Royal Institute of British Architects' South East' Building of the Year' and Wallpaper magazine's Best New House one year later.

2. CONTEMPORARY COTTAGE CONVERSION IN THE COTSWOLDS

The Cotswolds is renowned for its nostalgic aesthetic, but this Cottage Conversion near Cheltenham combines the area's traditional aura with exquisitely modern home decor. The curated blend between classic and contemporary flows throughout the sleek open-plan living spaces and architecturally admired features – including a statement glass roof and natural stone corridors.

(Image credit: uniquehomestays.com)

This RIBA National Award-winning maze is currently listed with uniquehomestays.com.

3. PLAYFUL GEORGIAN MANSION IN CHIDDINGFOLD, SURREY

Yes, the country mansion is a fun-filled utopia – complete with a state-of-the-art bowling alley and a games room, and a plush cinema room. However, when the film finishes, the Hollywood-inspired atmosphere doesn't need to end, as the property features a grand Romanesque pool that was created by film set designers. The home, which is only a short hop from London, is available this summer via uniquehomestays.com.