

The best UK houses to book for New Year's Eve

Looking for a holiday rental where you can ring in 2022 in style? Here are our top choices that still have availability

Last year's New Year's festivities may have been a little muted, but why not make up for it by ringing in 2022 in style? With just under two months to go, many properties across the country are already booked up, but we've found a clutch of options that are suitably special for New Year's Eve, whether you're after a chic couple's escape or bells-and-whistles party palace. From old fisherman's cottages in Cornwall to castles in the Scottish Highlands, here are 10 holiday rentals worthy of a celebration.

Romany, Romney Marsh, Kent

Stepping into this pretty little cabin near Rye and the Kent coast feels like entering a fictional bohemian writer's abode. Whitewashed walls and stripped wood floors are kept cosy by a woodburner and lush vintage fabrics, while in the bedroom a tinkling chandelier and draped muslin curtains on the four poster bed are pure romance. Outside, get the fire pit going and take a dip in the hot tub while watching the fireworks in the distance. A slight upgrade on just switching on Jools Holland's Hootenanny.
