

The best holiday cottages for a stunning UK minibreak

Where is the best place to book holiday cottages in the UK?

As staycations and UK-based holidays have become increasingly popular over the past few years thanks to the pandemic and environmental concerns about flying, so too have more sites become available by which to book them. For luxury holiday cottages we'd suggest browsing Plum Guide or Unique Home Stays, two of our favourite spots for finding more unique destinations, plenty of which feature hot tubs, fire pits or even sea views. We'd also say one of the most reliable and wide-ranging selections of holiday cottages is available on Airbnb, which is well worth a browse. To make matters even easier for you, we've selected our favourites from each site below.

BEST UK HOLIDAY COTTAGES WITH HOT TUBS: CORNWALL

Orlagh, Whitsland Bay, Cornwall

- Sleeps: Two people
- Bedrooms: One
- Bathrooms: One
- Price: From £1,550 per short break

Let's face it, a hot tub is an instant selling point, wherever you may be. But a private hot tub situated in a holiday cottage this luxurious? That's an offer we could never say no to.

Designed to sleep two people, this cottage makes for an excellent couples' retreat, giving you the chance to sit back and enjoy the sea views (the cottage is situated right next to the coast), while also basking in the natural light and enjoying a brief escape from reality in the hideaway style setting. If you're imagining a week away with your partner, a book and some relaxing coastal walks, Orlagh is your place. From £1,550. At uniquehomestays.com

BEST HOLIDAY COTTAGES FOR COUPLES IN CORNWALL: SUNDANCE, NEWQUAY

Sundance, Newquay

- Sleeps: Two people
- Bedrooms: One
- Bathrooms: One
- Price: From £725 per short break

This cottage completely speaks for itself; look at these images and try not to immediately book yourself on a couples' retreat to Newquay. Tucked away in a 'hideaway' style location, the cottage is an extension of a wagon, renovated to have all of the luxury features you'll need, from a barbecue and a glass-enclosed veranda for reading, to the outdoor sun loungers and self-catering set-up, it may be small, but it's certainly well-stocked.

While the cottage itself is an undeniable attraction, it's also the garden that's drawn us in here. Filled with wildflowers and accessed by the cottage's French doors, you'll be living your best cornish life in no time. From £725 for a short break. Book now at uniquhomestays.com

BEST HOLIDAY COTTAGES WITH A HOT TUBS AND FIRE PITS: CORNWALL

Uklyo, Coverack, Cornwall

- Sleeps: Up to four people
- Bedrooms: Two
- Bathrooms: Two
- Price: From £1,995 for a short break

Channelling summer house vibes, this Cornish holiday home is situated nearby the fishing village of Coverack in Southern Cornwall, a less tourist-filled nook which is ideal for a quieter holiday. Its views are what make it such an outstanding cottage, with everywhere from the sofa to the hot tub to the garden offering some of the widest sea views we've found for a full panorama of the coast ahead of you.

The cottage itself features two bedrooms, both of which have en-suite bathrooms, but it's the hot tub and fire pit which elevate this even further. It's got luxury down to a tee, especially when you take into account the prosecco-filled welcome hamper you'll be treated to on arrival. From £1,995 for a short break. At uniquehomestays.com
