

9 Unique Holiday Rentals For Couples & Groups In The UK

Staycations are still big news, and there are plenty of holiday rentals to know about in the UK, whether you're after a family holiday or romantic break. From whimsical treehouses to restored farmhouses, these are the ones we're looking to book

Pomona, Cornwall

On an isolated clifftop close to the Cornish fishing village of Coverack, this mid-century home is a modern-day celebration of art, nature, and a man's first love – sculpture. The surrounding meadows are the Terence Coventry Sculpture Park and this is the former home of the artists himself. With its outdoor pool and sweeping glass walls that connect those inside to nature, this coastal retreat oozes retro allure.

Visit UniqueHomeStays.com

Gaia, Cumbria

Evolving from humble pig shelter, to 32-acre farm, to luxury self-catering homestay, Gaia Farmhouse has weathered the Lake District's four dramatic seasons for the past 400 years and has now been lovingly restored by an architect using minimalist Scandinavian design. Warmth exudes from every nook, mountain views peek through windows that frame deerskin-covered armchairs and two enormous bathtubs hidden on the first-floor promise to soothe tired legs after long hikes around nearby Ullswater.

Visit UniqueHomeStays.com

Gaia, Cumbria

Verte, Devon

Hidden within Devon's Chevithorne Barton estate, Verte fans out in an angular display of larch cladding from the hill on which it sits, blending into its setting with simple modern elegance. Filled with light, the open-plan living space is the hub of this dwelling and the modern circular fireplace is perfect to cosy around, whatever the weather.

Visit UniqueHomeStays.com

Verte, Devon

Senara, Cornwall

Senara, Cornwall

Sugar pink sunsets, croissants on the beach and morning swims in the ocean off Gwithian's blue shores – the life offered at Senara is an idyllic one. The pool is the centrepiece from May to September, while the hot tub, fire pit and sauna give the gardens year-round appeal. Even in winter, this luxury self-catering home offers warmth, a place to come together and the promise of adventure.

Visit UniqueHomeStays.com