The Pandy House, Wales

UNIQUE HOMESTAYS; DAVID CURRAN

Accessed by way of a private bridge crossing the Afon Roe, you'd think this restored mill was something out of a fairytale given its eccentricity and beauty. Located near the hills and valleys of Snowdonia, this is the perfect house for a large group of mates to gather and enjoy its wonder, whether it's as a result of the William Morris wallpaper, glass wall overlooking the Tay y Fan peak or animal-printed bedrooms walls. Outside, there's a summerhouse, hot tub and a river you can bathe in during the summer and, if you dare, the winter months.

Fernden Lane, Surrey

A house of dreams, Fernden is a Grade II-listed, 16th century farmhouse which is half covered by flowers and greenery and is an interior lover's dream if you're all about solid oak floors, inglenook fireplaces, a cast iron, rolltop bathtub and soft furnishings. The spot itself is located close to Valewood Park and Black Dog Corpse where you can overlook Surrey's beauty. Our favourite part of the house has to be the dining room with patio doors overlooking the luscious green lawn.

The Zen Garden, Kent

UNIQUE HOMESTAYS; DAVID CURRAN

Modernity meets traditionalism here at this Garden of England, 15th century-located barn, with its timber beams, high ceilings and contrasting grey and white-hued walls. While the bedrooms and open-plan spaces aren't to be ignored, the pièce-de-résistance of this property has to be its outdoor kitchen and swimming pool. Oh, and there's also an aquarium, Koi pond and Bonsai trees galore. Your stay will include a welcome hamper of local produce, a sports package in the cinema room, freshly cut flowers and more.

Clementine House, Essex

UNIQUE HOMESTAYS, DAVID CLRRAN

This is a delicious property, if we do say so ourselves. Clementine House is the kind of place you dream of owning as a child, with its bright blue front door, Victorian-style glass pool house, heated outdoor pool and chandelier. You'll immediately feel the country vibes on stepping inside this property, thanks to its Aga, rolltop bathtubs and inviting bedrooms with plush cushions. Warning: You'll love it so much, you might never want to leave.
