Rhapsody, Surrey

A haven of art and architecture, Rhapsody is a setting renowned for championing rural revelry and restoration. Guests stay in six luxuriously appointed bedrooms, but it is the 20 acres of outdoor space where the property really comes alive – cue a magnificent heated swimming pool, yoga studio and sunken hot tub, a floating reading room on the crayfish pond, sculpture garden, and a Moroccan-style pool house with its own kitchen and alfresco dining space.

With its 20 acres of outdoor space and a floating reading room, Rhapsody offers a dreamy stay for rural revelers
