Hiraeth

Deep in the Pembrokeshire wilderness, you'll discover Hiraeth, a Unique HomeStays property that encompasses a sweet cottage and adjoining timber-clad bothy. Hiraeth – a Welsh word meaning a deep longing for something, especially one's home – is a rather fitting name for this property, which you'll dream of long after you leave. Sleeping up to 12 guests across the two properties, interiors have a distinctly Scandinavian feel: expect a melange of woody accents, lime washed walls, and cosy, cabin-like bedrooms. Guests will find generous welcome hampers stocked with Welsh cakes and local honey waiting for them, and days are spent discovering the dramatic coastline before retiring back to Hiraeth for afternoons spent steaming off in the sauna and soaking in the outdoor bath.

Rates start from £2,595 for short breaks, and from £3,450 for a week.
