Unique Homestays / David Curran

2/19

The Fable, Perranporth, Cornwall

For those who idealise the idea of a cottage but prefer a few more modern comforts, The Fable in Perranporth, Cornwall is the place to book. It's a collaborative effort between Unique Homestays and The White Company, meaning the interior is a neutral haven of calm, swathed in soft blankets and cosy sheepskins. A sunken hot tub makes the garden attractive no matter the weather, and there's a summerhouse too for keeping warm and dry while enjoying the garden. It's truly lovely and a luxury experience.

Sleeps: 4 guests

Price: weekly stays from £1,695 and shorter breaks from £1,250

6/19

Inkwell Cottage, Burford, Oxfordshire

Made from the same honey stone that characterises the prettiest cottages in the Cotswolds, this two bedroom abode is a delight. It's within the village of Burford in the area's AONB and is surrounded by lovely walks, pretty villages and plenty of things to keep you entertained in Burford itself. There are exposed beams, huge fireplaces and all the textiles you need to make it cosy as can be when you repair back after a walk in the local fields.

Sleeps: 2 guests

Price: From £995 per week, £750 per short break

16/19

The Riddle, Dartmoor, Devon

This two bedroom house sits on the picturesque village green of North Bovey in Dartmoor and is certainly one of the nicest of the thatched cottages in the village. Moor glades and sheep-strewn fields surround it, with the village pub just across the green.

Sleeps: Up to 4 guests

Price: From £1,495 per week, £1,095 per short break
