

7 of the best romantic UK holidays for minimoons and babymoos

Bask in the bliss of a staycation for two at these special spots, whether newlywed or a soon-to-be parent

Best for: Newlyweds

Filly Island, Cotswolds

Filly Island puts you right in the heart of the Cotswolds (Images © Unique Homestays www.uniquehomestays.com)

The Cotswolds boasts an undeniable romance, from its stunning 13th-century churches to cosy traditional pubs and intimate B&Bs. It's even home to Copse Hill, Britain's "most romantic road".

Unique Homestay's luxury self-catering cottage, Filly Island, in Cirencester, offers an ambience of intimate creativity dating back to the 1700s. The tiny island home, accessible by bridge, is the perfect size and setting for two lovebirds looking for a trip to remember. Short breaks to the rustically stylish island start from £750 including a luxury welcome hamper with local produce, a bottle of prosecco and kindling to make the most of the crackling wood burner.