Tiverton, Devon

Verte's bright floor-to-ceiling windows enjoy treetop views of the incredible Chevithorne Barton. Set among the glades, it offers a RIBA-awarded wood-clad stay that consciously decouples treehouse with 'rustic'. Think ultramodern and open plan, with plush linen sofas set around its centrepiece circular fireplace. It's a stone's throw from Exmoor National Park if the wildflower, magnolia surrounded setting isn't nature dose enough for you – expect walks that trail along dramatic Devonian shores.
